Calling all Paper Scrapbookers! A few weeks ago, I brought a professional film crew to my house, and we set up in my office to give you a great new class to test out the hands-on hybrid experience! I've got a super-cute, cool project for you to try for FREE! Now you can get the cool looks you've seen in magazines and online using your computer as a scrapbook tool. I've developed a FREE Hybrid Quick Start class that will get you going in just 15 minutes. In this brand-new class, I'll show you how to use BOTH Microsoft Word (which I know you already have, no excuses!) and Adobe Photoshop Elements to add a journaling block and a punchable accent to a paper page. All you need are a few paper supplies and this
